Bicycles in FC Fascinating itineraries in the green heart of Romagna

www.turismo.fc.it

Fatigue and views

High ridges to "grasp the handlebar", rolling hills that set the pace, long downhill stretches towards the sea. Settings that have seen the progress and success of great champions, routes that have become myths and places where you can park your bike and discover the pleasure of excellent food and unequivocal wine.

The green heart of Romagna beats to the rhythm of the heartbeat of the many enthusiasts who ride our roads. This guide is dedicated to these people, to accompany them along the itineraries of various levels of difficulty, with indications on refreshment fountains and on specialised mechanics where they can seek assistance, offering precise reference points and detailed descriptions.

With this same passion, we have created an Internet site dedicated to bicycle itineraries where you can find other ideas and indications at www.bicicletta.turismo.fc.it

Each road becomes a route in the province of Forlì-Cesena, each itinerary a personal challenge. All this to be able to fully enjoy your passion in the green heart of Romagna.

SOS in FC List of mechanics in the Province of Forlì-Cesena

Hard slopes, charming views, peaks that seem inaccessible. The description of destinations outside the itineraries, dedicated to those living their passion for cycling as a challenge for their muscles and their brain. www.bicicletta.turismo.fc.it

Challenges in FCRamps not for everyone

Slope of Tribiul or Trebboli - Civitella

Coming from Forlì, from the centre of Civitella, in front of he square, turn left heading to Ranchio.

A hardgoing climb with peaks of 20% slopes.

Cento - Roncofreddo

From Case Castagnoli, cycle on the road to Longiano.
At the roundabout take the third exit, then the first road on the right.
After about 1 km turn right, after 700 m turn left on the bridge and then turn immediately right.
Here there is a hardgoing climb up to Cento di Roncofreddo.

Via Croce - Terra del Sole

From the top of Mount Trebbio, cycle towards Faenza. At the end of the slope, near to the shooting gallery of Santa Lucia, turn right on via Croce. 840 m of very hard spurt leading to the Church of Converselle (Terra del Sole).

La Minghina - Modigliana

From Modigliana, turn right after the Carabinieri station. A never-ending climb up to the top of Mount Casale.

La Fabbrona - Fratta Terme

After the residential area of Fratta Terme, heading to Polenta, turn right towards La Fabbrona. Follow the road to the left. Here starts the hardgoing climb to Polenta.

Montevecchio - Roncofreddo

From Borello follow the road signs for E45 and pass over it (direction Mercato Saraceno - Sorrivoli).
Follow the old SS71, and then turn left towards Sorrivoli.
Here starts the climb leading to Montevecchio.

Roversano, Santa Lucia, Oriola - Cesena

From Cesena, at the roundabout before Ponte Vecchio, turn left on via Roversano. Follow the up and downhill up to Roversano and the slope up to Oriola.

Santa Maria Rio Petra - Sogliano

From Bivio Montegelli take the main road to Cesena. Immediately turn right towards Santa Maria Rio Petra (Strigara - Montegelli).

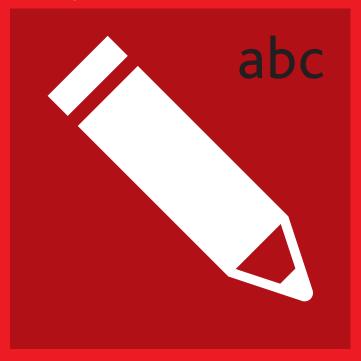

Passo Valbura or del Manzo - Bocconi/ Premilcuore

A risky pass between the valleys of Montone and Rabbi rivers, along a very narrow road.

From SS67 (Valle del Montone), before getting to the residential area of Bocconi, turn left following the directions. It is easy to get to valley line, the hardgoing climb starts after the bridge on the Montone River, surrounded by a thick wood.

The road climbs up on the side of the hill with 12% and hardgoing slopes up to the pass. The downhill slope towards Premilcuore is nice at the beginning, and then it becomes steeper with narrow hairpin bends leading to SS9ter in Premilcuore.

The roads of the Roman divisions

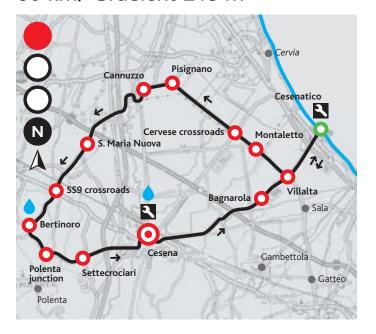

An absolutely flat run along the history of the Roman domain of this land. The Roman division of Cesena occurred between 268 and 187 a.C. and is one of the best preserved examples in Europe.

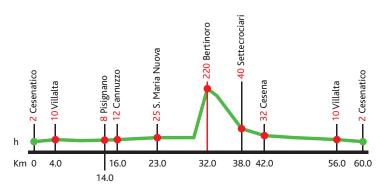

The term "Roman division" (centuriazione in Italian) means a system used to divide the land into four sides of 700 m approximately. Each side was accessed by a grid of surrounding lanes facing east-west (decumani) and south-north (cardini). The Roman colonies were given individual plots of land and at the crossing point of the individual axes of the lanes there were groups of houses of which the system was absorbed by the entire organisation of the churches upon disappearance of the Western Empire.

the Wine and Dine Route.

The hill slopes to the flatland, crossed by a line that has followed the pace of history: Via Emilia.

The flatland opens out to the sea: fine soft and gold sand beaches, clear water and a warm welcome make this short coastal strip the ideal destination for a fun-filled seaside holiday. Events, fairs and enjoyment, relaxation under the parasol or fun in the bright lights of the night. Joyful and smiling folk that love their land and invite you to enjoy its emotions along new trails, from the bright blue sea to the green mountains.

Via Emilia

Along the Via Emilia

The road crosses the province in a straight line, passing Forlì to discover architectural treasures such as the Fort of Caterina Sforza, Basilica of San Mercuriale or the works of art of the Public picture Gallery. From Forlì to Forlimpopoli, with the imposing Fort that dominates the old town centre. Looking further a field you can capture the hill of Bertinoro, a mediaeval village that has been kept perfectly and Campigna Forests National Park intact and that has a thousand years of tradition in hospitality and culture in wine and food. Via Emilia then enters Cesena and its old town centre: the large Piazza del Popolo, the elegant Masini Fountain, the amazing Malatestiana Fortress, the 15th century Malatestiana Library and the Alessandro Bonci theatre. From Cesena to Gambettola. a town rich in bustling business, related to tradition and innovation: here, you will find one of the oldest printworks of Romagna cloths. Before you leave the province, Via Emilia crosses Savignano sul Rubicone, historically related to Julius Caesar, who crossed the river in 49 a.C. Here, you can admire the wonderful Piazza Borghesi with its town hall building and the Accademia dei Filopatridi. Another itinerary runs along the province, part of the Wine and Dine route of the hills of Forli and Cesena (www.stradavinisaporifc.it): 118 ways of discovering the land, its traditions and its events. restaurants, pubs and warm hospitality.

A short coastline where you will find hospitality and where the green heart turns blue. Cesenatico is a typical holiday resort where you can admire the Canal Port designed by Leonardo da Vinci. the Maritime Museum, the council Antiquarium and the Museum home of the poet and writer Marino Moretti. Enjoy the beaches of Gatteo, a well-equipped coastal resort; the town centre has been turned into a pedestrian island, where smiling people invite you back any time of the year. Amidst land and sea you can discover the history of San Mauro Pascoli and the places bound to Giovanni Pascoli: Casa Pascoli and Villa Torlonia. A must for a quality seaside holiday is San Mauro Mare. repeatedly awarded with the "Blue flag". A stretch of fine sand belongs to Savignano sul Rubio Savignano Mare a beach that

Bidente Valley

A river with two names: Bidente in the higher parts and Ronco from Cusercoli onwards. It runs from the Casentino Forests National Park to the Regional Nature Reserve "Bosco di Scardavilla" near Meldola. Santa Sofia marked the boundary between Romagna Pontificia and Tuscanv: here you will find the Contemporary Art Gallery "Vero Stoppioni" and the Open-air Sculpture Park. Not to miss is the Dam of Ridracoli, built by man in perfect harmony with the environment. Galeata conserves and valorizes a historical and archaeological patrimony: the antique site of Mevanìola, the Villa di Teodorico and the Abbey of Sant'Ellero. In the nearby village of Pianetto you can admire the Renaissance convent of the Frati Minori, now the civil museum "Mons. D. Mambrini", with an ample collection of historical and archaeological findings. Civitella rises where the valley gets narrower; this is a small and untouched mediaeval village built around the imposing Fortress and the high neo-gothic tower. Montefeltro, the hills of Rimini and San Marino Some destinations worth remembering in Montefeltro, in the province of Pesaro Urbino. The small town of Perticara, amidst thick pinewoods and the overhanging rock of Monte Aquilone, or the blooming Novafeltria, once main marketplace for the folk living in the surrounding hills. The setting is dominated by the Fort of San Leo, that juts over the surrounding flatland: the Count of Cagliostro and the patriot Felice Orsini were imprisoned here. The province of Rimini offers the spectacular view of the Fort of Torriana and Montebello, where history is bound to legend or of Verucchio, perfect Malatestiana capital. Moving towards the sea you can admire the hill of Santarcangelo, where the untouched mediaeval fortress village stands. Between the two provinces is the Titano mountain and the three towers facing the sea, lookout posts of the "land of liberty": the Republic of San Marino.
